

APPLICATION FOR ACCOMMODATION

The George Crombie Trust was established in 1949, in terms of the Trust Deed “to assist ladies of gentle birth of or passed middle age who have only a small income from which to find accommodation”. Currently the Trust has as its purposes and objectives the provision of accommodation and the payment of grants or annuities (for which separate application forms are available) to those men, women or married couples demonstrating a particular need.

The Trustees have the discretion to make accommodation available to any individual depending on his/her/their circumstances.

All applicants must provide a full and complete disclosure of their current financial circumstances. Applications will be considered in or around March and September each year.

Applicants are required to supply information to the Trustees in the terms of the annexed Schedule, along with the completed authority below to release confirmation of their financial position, as disclosed by them, from their banks or building societies or other source of income. Applicants should complete the following declaration along with the information in the Schedule annexed.
